L O N G I S L A N D I C E D T E A

Named after resemblance to its namesake. It was long believed that it was created in the 700's in the Long Island, Now York but some new facts came to light dating the drink to the 20's in Tennessee. Doesn't matter what you believe in, a combination of Tequila, Vodka, Rum, Triple Sec, Gin and Coca Cola cannot go wrong or can it? Be careful!

D A I Q U I R I

Old sailors drink. Around in the Caribbeans since 18th century, popularized in the present form at the beginning of the 20th century. Just to say that it was one of the favourites of Ernest Hemingway and J.F. Kennedy there is nothing more to add! Bacardi Rum, Lime juice, Sugar. Enjoy!

€9.50

M O J I T O

Yet another Cuban cocktail, yet another Hemingways favourites. Genius drunk! It didn't appear in todays form until 1930s but similar drinks were drunk in the region since the 16th century. Of course people back then didn't have the Bacardi Superior Rum which together with fresh mint leaves, lime wedges, sugar and topped up with soda water creates an amazing and refreshing drink!

M A R T I N I E S P R E S S O

Smirnoff Vodka, Kahlua, espresso and a Dash of Creme de Caco. A modern twist on the Martini Kahaula will give it that velvety coffee tastes.

€9.50

SINGAPORE SLING

Originally invented as a drink for the ladies, hence the attractive pink colour. Carefully measured and blended tastes of Gin, Benedictine, Cherry Brandy, Cointreau, lime juice, pineapple juice, Agnostura Bitters and Grenadine will allow you to enjoy this century old original, oriental drink

COSMOPOLITAN

Pink in colour although not exactly girly. Popularized in the 90's around since the 70's. The mix of Vodka, Cointreau, cranberry juice & fresh lime juice is nothing to be ashamed of!

CLASSIC MARTINI

Simple, tasty, with a lot of character. Contrary to popular belief not designed by a special agent, although anyone will feel like one after trying it. Made of just two ingredients Premium Gin or Vodka and Dry Vermouth has a license to tickle Your senses. Have it with lemon twist, dry or dirty we don't judge!
